Springfield Human Resources Management Association (SHRMA)
A Chapter of the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM)

What is SHRMA?

SHRMA is the Springfield Human Resources Management Association. It is Certified Chapter of SHRM, The Society for Human Resources Management. SHRMA is a progressive and professional organization attracting the Springfield area's top Human Resources and Industrial Relations professionals into its membership since 1943. Our Chapter is the leading voice of the human resources profession locally. We provide education, recognition, resources and networking opportunities locally and regionally. Membership in our Chapter is the most recognizable symbol of your contribution and commitment to the human resources profession.

What is SHRM?

SHRM is the Society for Human Resource Management. It is the leading voice of the human resource profession. SHRM provides education and information services, conferences and seminars, government and media representation, online services and publication to over 150,000 professional and student members throughout the world. Serious-minded HR professionals recognize the value of membership in the Society, now the world's largest human resources management professional society.

What is the Purpose of SHRMA?

The purpose of our association is to:

Build knowledge of the human resources profession
Earn professional recognition and certification
Build of career network of highly respected HR professionals
Provide a means to exchange ideas and discuss problems common to human resource administration

Meetings and Activities

Our association holds meeting or events each month except summer months. A newsletter announcing meetings and activities is sent to members each month. Meetings are during lunch on the second Thursday of each month. Membership fees include lunch expenses. Speakers present timely topics at meetings. The Chapter also holds social events such as a year-end holiday party and a summer golf outing. Members may participate on committees, which include membership, program, executive, or the event committee.
