

BENEFITS RESOURCE GUIDE

INTRODUCTION

This Benefits Resource Guide is here to assist those of us who help Veterans and their families. This guide is not for distribution to the Veteran. This is a reference for service officers and Veteran representatives to help them provide Veterans with the information they need.

Updates will be sent out periodically. If you did not receive this resource guide directly from the Ohio Department of Veterans Services, please contact us so that we can provide you with updates and other appropriate information to meet your needs.

Thank you for assisting those who are serving and those who have served our country.

GI BILL

There are currently two programs available under the GI Bill:

- The MGIB program provides up to 36 months of education benefits. This benefit may be used for degree and certificate programs, flight training, apprenticeship/on-the-job training and correspondence courses. Remedial, deficiency, and refresher courses may be approved under certain circumstances. Generally, benefits are payable for 10 years following your release from active duty. This program is also commonly known as Chapter 30.
- The Post-9/11 GI Bill is for individuals with at least 90 days of aggregate service on or after September 11, 2001, or individuals discharged with a service-connected disability after 30 days. You must have received an honorable discharge to be eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill. The Post-9/11 GI Bill will become effective for training on or after August 1, 2009.

Procurement Technical Assistance Centers (PTAC)

The PTA centers help Ohio's businesses sell goods and services to local, state and federal governments. In addition to services like marketing, one-on-one training and help with information resources, the Ohio PTA Centers offer bid-matching services, product and procurement histories, military specifications, and trade events where Ohio firms can meet government buyers. These services are provided at no cost to Ohio businesses.

Other services include:

- Bid Preparation Assistance
- Post Award Assistance
- Subcontracting Assistance

A broad range of procurement technical assistance services is provided through a network of centers located throughout the state. The program is part of a nationwide network of Procurement Technical Assistance Centers (PTAC) created and monitored by the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA). In Ohio, the Ohio Department of Development is hosting the program at the Minority Business Enterprise Division in partnership with the DLA and the Ohio Small Business Development Centers program. In addition, the program is supported by a number of community-based organizations serving local businesses.
