GUIDE

KEGLER
BROWN
HILL+
RITTER

All elections are important. This election is no different. On or before November 4 you will be asked to select Ohio's next Governor (which runs as a team with the Lieutenant Governor); Attorney General; Auditor of State; Secretary of State; and Treasurer of State; who will serve as your U.S. House of Representatives member for the next 2 years; two individuals that will serve on our Ohio Supreme Court for the next 4 years; who will serve as your Ohio Senate member (in 17 of the seats open this election) for the next 4 years; who will serve as your Ohio House of Representative member (all 99 of the seats are open this election) for the next 2 years; among a host of other important local issues throughout the state.

Tuesday, Oct. 7: Early In-Person Voting Begins (now through Friday, Nov. 1) (Don't know where to go vote in person? Click here to contact your local county board of election) Mailed ballots must be postmarked by Nov. 3

Tuesday, Nov. 4: Election Day! Deadline to drop-off your ballot in person (polls open from 6:30a.m to 7:30p.m.)

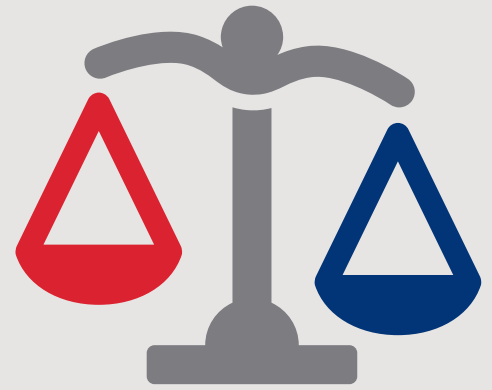

This 2014 Election Guide was compiled to help provide you with guidance on which candidates major trade associations and business groups endorsed for the November 4 general election or have been favorably recognized by an organization. Some candidates can claim to be pro-business, but only those individuals with a good track record or thoroughly screened have earned an endorsement by state and national associations that represent the business community.

The organizations and offices used to compile this information include: United States Chamber of Commerce (USCC), Ohio Chamber of Commerce (OCC) and OhioBusinessVotes.org, National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB), Ohio Farm Bureau Federation (OFB), Ohio Restaurant Association (ORA), Ohio Society of CPAs (CPA), Ohio Manufacturers' Association (OMA), Ohio Secretary of State (SOS), Ohio Republican Party (ORP), and the Ohio Democratic Party (ODP).

All of the associations mentioned above choose to endorse or not to endorse for various reasons. You will note on the pages following that there are candidates all associations have endorsed, some that most have endorsed and others that these associations simply agree to disagree on who the best person is for the job. While the associations mentioned typically do not endorse candidates for the court of appeals we wanted to make sure you have the information about each candidate to make an informed decision when voting. Please contact the respective association if you would like to know more about their endorsement process. **denotes incumbent*
