

Call for Speakers !!

2009 Ohio Human Resource Conference

Applications are currently being accepted for the 37th Annual Ohio Human Resource Conference to be held at the Kalahari Resort in Sandusky, OH on September 16-18, 2009.

Desired Topics include:

- HR as a Business Partner
- Retention Strategies
- Diversity in the 21st Century
- Legal Topics on Hot Issues
- Effective Employee Relations
- Where is HR going ??

For more information about our Conference visit us online at www.ohioshrm.org and click on the Conference link!

Complete the attached application today!

Speaker Application

2009 Ohio Human Resource Conference

Name:
Company:
Address, City, State & Zip Code
Phone Number: (List best number to reach you)
E-mail Address:

Title of presentation or topic that you would like to present:
Has your presentation received HRCI credits in the past?
Sample/names of Groups you have presented to before: <small>(Please include contact name and information for references & any videos/evaluations of presentations. SHRM chapters/conferences experience preferred.)</small>
What take-aways will attendees get from your presentation? How will you engage attendees? <small>(If you wish to send in additional information on this area, please attach it with your application).</small>

All Applications must be accompanied with evaluation summaries from previous presentations. Please note that presentations should be 1 to 1 1/4 hours in length.

Please complete and return to Steve Browne:

sbrowne@larosas.com

Fax: (513) 347-5696

Or mail to : 2334 Boudinot Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45238

NOTE: Completion of application doesn't guarantee that you will be chosen to speak at the Conference. All applicants will be considered and they will also receive confirmation of their application.