

Join us on April 11 for:

Focus on Friends – We All Know Someone

Presented by:
Joshua St. Louis

Joshua St. Louis as a person in recovery from mental health and addiction, Josh works for FOCUS as the Recovery Home Coordinator in a Level II Home for men, accredited by Ohio Recovery Housing. As Home Coordinator, Josh supports the men in the house on their personal path to recovery, holding them accountable, communicating daily and setting an example of what recovery can look like.

Prior to working for FOCUS, Josh was working on his recovery, receiving intensive outpatient treatment for Substance use and Trauma and was employed at Jac N Dos. Josh also volunteers for NAMI: the National Alliance of Mental Illness, leading support and education groups and reaching out to hospitals, inpatient centers, helping those with mental health conditions find the help, support and resources they could use to aid in long term recovery from mental health.
