

Join us on June 13th for:

Hidden in Plain Sight

Presented by:
Zach Thomas

Zach Thomas is currently the Director of Wellness and Education at the Hancock County Board of Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services. He serves as the coordinator of the Hancock County Community Partnership and Opiate Task Force, which are long-standing community coalitions focused on substance abuse prevention and mental health promotion. Zach served as a grant project manager for Hancock County's participation in the Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant program sponsored by the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services. Through this grant, Hancock County focused their efforts on the misuse of prescription drugs among all 18-25 year olds within the community, and developed and implemented a social norms campaign call "The I Am Enough Project." Zach began his career serving as Director of Bands and Assistant Director of Choirs at Liberty-Benton Local Schools from 1999-2008. During his teaching career, he taught instrumental and choral music to students in grades 5-12. Zach graduated Cum Laude from Bowling Green State University in 1999, earning a Bachelor of Music Education degree with an emphasis in Instrumental Music and Piano. He is also a 2018 Graduate of Hancock Leadership.
