

Join us on March 8th for: United Way's Resources for HR Professionals

Join us for our monthly meeting update, where a panel of United Way's Staff will provide an overview of the organization with an emphasis on programs and services which would be resources for human resource professionals to share with workplace associates.

The United Way Staff on Panel

John Urbanski, President/CEO

Michael Momany, Resources Development Director

Beverly Phillips, Community Services Director

Heather Heilman, Program/Grants Coordinator

Tamera Rooney, Communications Director

United Way of Hancock County continually works toward a community where all individuals and families achieve their human potential through education, financial stability and healthy lives. The organization strives for a community that fosters hope and opportunity for everyone. Since its inception in 1955, United Way of Hancock County has gone from doing fundraising for a handful of organizations to partnering with dozens of local nonprofit programs and services. Its board, staff and community-minded volunteers serve on community committees, participates in collaborative projects and partners with cross-sector organizations to address the root causes of social issues in Hancock County.
